

HUNT MESSENGERS TO CLEAR $29,800 THEFT OF JEWELS

Eleven Who Took Flowers to Humphreys House, in Mourning, Sought by Police.

In the belief that the thief who stole $29,800 worth of jewelry from the home of Edward W. Humphreys, the plate glass manufacturer, at No. 9 East Sixty-fifth Street, went there as a messenger bearing flowers or a note of condolence over the death of Mrs. Humphreys's sister, Mrs. Arthur Duane, whose body was lying in the house, a dozen detectives were sent out to-day to round up eleven persons known to have visited the house.

The jewelry was taken from the drawer of a dresser in Mrs. Humphreys's room in the rear part of the second story. In an adjoining drawer of the dresser was jewelry of an even greater value than that stolen, but the thief evidently had so little time in which to work that he overlooked his greater booty.

Although Mr. and Mrs. Humphreys declined to-day to say anything about the robbery, it is known that the thief took the gems between 1 o'clock and 3:45 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. At the former hour when Mrs. Humphreys went to her dresser nothing had been disturbed. But at 3:45 o'clock, upon sending a maid to the room for something, she was notified of the robbery. The maid reported that she had found the empty jewel case on the bed.

Owing to the death in the Humphreys family, the house was accessible all day Tuesday, the day before the funeral, to florists' messengers and servants from other households who came with messages. It is believed that one of these might have taken advantage of the temporary interruption of the orderly regime of the household to get to the second floor and take the gems.

Some other during this might have entered, as the front door was left unlocked practically all day and during many intervals it was unattended by any of the servants.

A list of the stolen jewelry was to-day given to the police by Mrs. Humphreys. It is:
One necklace of 75 pearls, with an earring of diamonds, $25,000; one diamond necklace with platinum heart set in diamonds with 3 carat diamond drop, $1,000; one solitaire diamond ring, 2-1/2 to 3 carats, Tiffany setting, $1,200; one platinum watch, the back set with diamonds, from Tiffany's, $1,000; one longsette chain with diamond ornament and pearl slides, $500; one black ribbon chain with small diamond ornament set in platinum, $100; and one platinum chain with small diamonds, $50. The total value of the jewelry is thus $29,800.

Mr. Humphreys, who is President of the Mississippi Glass Company of No. 220 Fifth Avenue, is director in several corporations and a member of the Union League, Metropolitan Players, Manhattan and New York Yacht Clubs and the Loyal Legion. Mrs. Humphreys is a member of the Colony Club and the Colonial Dames.

Art Treasures of the Far East

This drawing is a reproduction of a photograph taken in China several weeks ago, showing a portion of the porcelains, screens, curios, etc., picked up by our representative in Tientsin.

A cable informs us that he has been fortunate in securing a wonderful collection of Karaigaki, a Chinaware used in the manufacture of vases, urns, and other decorative pieces.

We have in stock a few Korean cabinets. Particularly rich is the variety of Korean cabinets in native woods, elaborately mounted in beautifully etched brass.

Our Far East Department now shows a rare collection of Chinese bronzes. The new shipment will add many more pieces to the stock. Embroidered Mandarin Robes in marvelous colorings.

It is interesting to note that our prices on all the art treasures we have collected in the Far East are based solely upon merchandise costs.
